

2026 Sponsorship Opportunities: Incident 248

Presented by Blighthouse Productions Ltd. in partnership with Meadows Family Farm.

The Event: Incident 248

Blighthouse Productions Ltd. is proud to present "Incident 248," a high-intensity, immersive haunted attraction launching in Fall 2026. By strategically partnering with the well-established Meadows Family Farm, we are combining premium seasonal entertainment with a beloved local agritourism destination.

The Opportunity

We are offering local businesses the unique opportunity to get their brand directly in front of thousands of highly engaged attendees. Partnering with us not only aligns your brand with a premier community event but provides measurable, high-impact visibility that standard advertising cannot match.

By The Numbers: Who You Will Reach

Expected Attendance: 8,000+ targeted attendees throughout the Halloween season.

- Demographics: Teens, young adults, and thrill-seeking families from across the Fraser Valley and Metro Vancouver.
- Digital Reach: Millions of organic and paid impressions across our localized social media and digital marketing campaigns.

The Team Behind The Events

Blighthouse Productions is led by a team of lifelong attraction professionals who understand what it takes to execute safe, high-yield, and unforgettable events.

Liam Marshall, CEO

Bringing 8 years of specialized experience in the haunt industry, Liam has supervised over 50 actors, managed large-scale logistics, and coordinated production at one of Canada's largest haunted attractions.

Chief Operations Officer

Our Technical Director brings over 8 years of haunt management experience, specifically within high-quality agritourism venues, and holds 15+ years of construction and trades expertise.

Together, our team has thoroughly researched and secured the necessary permits, safety protocols, and operational workflows to guarantee a secure, top-tier operation from opening night to the final scare.
